

Autumn opening 2020

Good news ! We are Ready to Go / Barod amdani officially . Comprehensive risk assessment recommendations have all been fulfilled and we are now ready to welcome our first visitors of 2020. Things have changed in order to ensure the safety and health of both yourselves and our staff, but we are confident you will still enjoy coming here.

We will be operating an appointment only system to visit the Museum, therefore we kindly ask you to get in touch a few days before your intended visit. No one will be admitted without prior booking.

Local Archaeology Finds Exhibition
(another chance to see this popular collection)

Despite the necessary adjustments one thing remains the same :
our warm 'croeso' welcome to all.
